

Elizabeth A. Czerepak

Elizabeth A. Czerepak is a biotechnology and pharmaceutical finance executive with over three decades of experience in public companies, venture capital, and big pharma. She currently serves as Chief Financial Officer and Vice President of Corporate Development at Mirror Biologics, Inc., and sits on the Board of Directors of Delcath Systems, Inc.

She has held senior financial roles at multiple biotech firms, where she led IPOs, SPAC mergers, and strategic financings — including transactions for Scilex Holding, Altimune, and Cancer Genetics. Earlier in her career, she held senior positions at BASF Pharma, Hoffmann-La Roche, and Merck & Co., focusing on finance, business development, and strategic planning.

In venture capital, she was Managing Director at Bear Stearns and JPMorgan, and a founding General Partner of Bear Stearns Health Innoventures, where she led biotech investments.

She holds an MBA from Rutgers University, a B.A. from Marshall University, and a Corporate Director Certificate from Harvard Business School.
